The Year 1800 is arrived!

UNION TAVERN,

In George-Town, upon the Potomak, is
FOR SALE,
Upon the premises, on the first Monday in May next.

THIS Tavern was built by the subscription of a number of gentlemen as a necessary and useful improvement to the town—It cost 16000 dollars in the year 1796 when materials and workmanship were much cheaper than at this time. The terms of subscription were that it should be sold to the highest bidder on the day above mentioned.

It is a handsome, substantial brick building, of three stories, fronting sixty feet on the most public street in the town, and running back sixty three feet upon a wide and convenient street—The house is admirably calculated for a tavern. It contains upon the first floor four large rooms, one of them 30 by 20 feet and another 23 by 20, besides a large bar and dressing room, upon the second floor is an elegant assembly room, 60 by 30 feet, and three convenient lodging rooms. Upon the third floor are ten excellent lodging rooms—the garrat admits of a division of ten more. There is also a good kitchen and commodious cellars sufficient for such a house. Passages and cross passages intersect the house in such a manner as to make each room private.

There are stables sufficient for the accommodation of fifty horses, with convenient sheds for carriages—attached to the building are three lots of 60 feet by 120 each, which front on three streets, and in the back yard and not 20 yards from the kitchen is a copious and never failing spring of most excellent running water.

The nature of improvements and their convenience to the city of Washington must render this property a most desirable acquisition to any person who may wish to carry on a tavern upon an extensive scale. The immediate removal of the government of the United States must receive to it full and complete custom.

The terms of sale are, one third in cash—one third in 120 days and the other third in 240 days, to be secured by approved notes negotiable at the Bank of Columbia or at either of the Banks in Baltimore, possession to be given on the day of sale and a perfect title made clear, of all incumbrances, on the last payment being made.

DESERTED

FROM the quarters of the Subscriber, in the night of Monday the 24th instant, an enlisted Soldier, named JOHN MARSHALL, born in Salem, New-Jersey, by occupation a Labourer, aged 23 years, five feet 7 inches high, blue eyes, black hair, sallow complexion, and it is said this is his second desertion.

Also, at the same time, ALEXANDER TEEL, born in Sussex county, New Jersey, a Tanner by trade, aged 18 years, 5 feet 5 and an half inches high, remarkable small hazle eyes, short brown hair, which has been lately cropped, fair complexion, his upper teeth large and projecting, speaks much thro' his nose; was enticed from his duty by the art and persuasion of the above named Marshall.

Whoever shall take up said Deserters and lodge them in Jail, or shall deliver them to the subscriber, at his Quarters in Filbert, between Ninth and Tenth Streets, Philadelphia, or to any officer of the army of the United States, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, or for either of them a proportionate compensation.

FOR THE CURE OF FITS.

Convulsion Hysteric, or Epileptic Falling Fits,

Are effectually cured by this excellent medicine. Its virtues are absolutely specific and unparalleled. It has failed in no instance within the knowledge of the proprietor (where taken agreeable to the directions, and with perseverance) the most dreadful Fits ever known. One case of cure only is subjoined out of a considerable number, as proof of its efficacy attested before the Lord Mayor of London.

AFFIDAVIT.

"I, James Pocock, of No. 40, North-street, in the Parish of St. Luke's Middlesex, do make oath—That I was grievously afflicted with fits for upwards of 15 years! and that to so violent a degree, as to require 12 men to hold me in them, to prevent me dashing myself to pieces. They would generally last me 5, 6, and often 7 hours; in consequence of which my constitution became quite emaciated. I made application to many eminent gentlemen of the faculty, who afforded me no relief whatever; till I applied to Dr. James Church of the City Road, who prescribed his Antispasmodic Elixir for me, which I took, and which alone cured me of these most dreadful fits, and restored me to perfect health. This deponent further maketh oath, and saith, that it is now two years since he was first cured of his fits, and he has no return whatever of them since.

JAMES POCOCK.

Sworn before me at the Mansion-house, this 29th day of August, 1796.

William Curtis, Mayor.

To the nervous, weak, debilitated, sedentary and consumptive,
IS RECOMMENDED, THE CELEBRATED
BOTANICAL TEA,
Instead of Foreign Tea.

THIS Tea is universally approved of in preference to foreign tea, as the most pleasant, wholesome, enlivening, invigorating, and powerful restorative ever adopted, for persons of all ages, but particularly those of the above description; as it will infallibly strengthen, and eventually repair a bad constitution.

It is taken for breakfast instead of foreign tea, and as our first aliment in the morning is designed to recruit the waste of the body from the night's insensible perspiration; it is well known, and an important fact which ought to be borne on the mind of every one, that foreign teas are inadequate to such purposes, as all will allow; it unnerves and wears the substance of the solids. This substitute is professionally approved as a salutary and nourishing diet, or as a morning and afternoon beverage.

THE BOTANICAL TEA

is singularly efficacious in all cases of inward weakness, trembling or shaking of the hands, loss of appetite, (particularly in the morning) depression of spirits, windy complaints. It speedily relieves the head and stomach in gouty or rheumatic cases; and in cases of weak digestion, but particularly after making too free with the constitution, by an immoderate use of wine, spiritous liquors, or any intemperance; it is happily suited to hot climates, and is adopted and approved of by some of the first families in the United States and in the West-Indies, for its nourishing and invigorating properties; and in bilious cases where the appetite has failed, it is a sovereign remedy.

ON FOREIGN TEA.

"The cause of the palsy is drinking too much tea; many imagine tea has no ill effect upon the nerves, this however is a mistake: it effects the nerves, which is evident from its causing the hands to shake, preventing sleep, occasioning giddiness, dimness of sight, sickness, &c.

Dr. BUCHAN.

Dr. H. SMITH.

And in another publication, Dr. Hugh Smith says, "Tea is hurtful both to the stomach and nerves; it causes phrensies, delirium, appoplexies, and other disorders of the brain, which are produced by the nerves being thus disarranged and debilitated, the digestive faculty of the stomach is much weakened, and the body failing of the recruiting juices, must tend to emaciation and the whole frame thus rendered one system of distress and infirmity."

The justly celebrated Dr. Tillot says, "This fashionable beverage, India Tea, is extremely pernicious, it destroys the strength of the stomach, the viceræ, the blood, the nerves, and eventually the whole body."

Dr. Moliere says, "In bilious complaints, tea is extremely hurtful."

Dr. Fothergill. "Tea is very offensive to the lungs, and impedes respiration; it is therefore highly improper for persons who have a difficulty of breathing, or any complaint of the lungs or nerves."

Dr. Saunders says, (see his Medical Mem.) "Indian tea renders men impotent and women barren; hence we may account for the persons in the higher circles having few children, and those in general very sickly and unhealthy."

For more accounts of this tea, see the second edition of Dr. Church's pamphlet.

This botanical tea is calculated to produce the contrary effects, is the result of long and indefatigable study and experience, and by perseveringly adopting its use, will be found to answer the effects herein mentioned.

It is cheaper than India tea—one packet at 75 cents, will last one person for breakfast nearly one month—cannisters containing eight packets, five dollars.

 The celebrated BOTANICAL TEA is prepared only by Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, No. 137 Front-Street, near the Fly-Market, New York, and sold wholesale and retail, by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 South Second Street, Philadelphia, and Mr. Jas. Rice, Baltimore.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress' prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 8.

Justum et tenacem propositi virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus instantis tyranni,
Mente quatit solida.

The following proposition is said to have been submitted to the Senate of the United States, by the celebrated author of "THE ALIENS," an heroi-comic Poem:

Between the word "Senate," and the word "and," in the fourth line from the end of the resolution submitted a few days since, respecting the Aurora, to insert "and that the said committee be also directed to enquire, who is the editor of the newspaper printed in the said city, called "Gazette of the United States, and Philadelphia Daily Advertiser." And by what means the said editor became possessed of the votes in the Senate on the bill sent from the House of Representatives, for suspending the enlistments of the twelve regiments, &c. As published in the said newspaper, bearing date the 13th of February instant; and by what authority he published those votes partially, and under the classification contained in the said newspaper; and also whether the said editor is the author of sundry assertions, observations and reflections, immediately preceding and following the statement of the said votes, and published in the said paper, of and concerning the Senate of the United States, and the members thereof in thir official capacity.

As it may give some satisfaction to this learned and inquisitive gentleman, as well as to his illustrious compeers, I will answer his questions, notwithstanding the Senate refused him their permission to put them.

I am the editor of that unfortunate Gazette, which, it appears, has given such mortal offence to the sage eleven, and perhaps to more than eleven thousand of their illuminated associates throughout the country. I am well pleased that this motion was made by our author, and equally well pleased that it was supported by the men whose names appear in the affirmative. The enquiry concerning "the means by which the said Editor became possessed of the votes in the Senate on the bill sent from the House of Representatives for suspending the enlistments of the twelve regiments, &c." must appear not a little curious to the reader, when he reflects that the proceedings of the Senate, and its Journals, containg a statement of all the votes, are PUBLIC, and that our author knew these circumstances to exist. I can therefore, make a very straight, and I presume a satisfactory answer to this question also. I copied the votes from the public journals.—Q. 3, as to the partial publication of the votes, is no less singular than the former; as the word refers to the omission of the name of Mr. Ross, left out by the carelessness of the printers. Now, as Mr. Ross was one of those gentlemen who voted against putting a stop to the enlistments, as he is universally regarded among the "pauci quos equus amavit Jupiter," methinks the allusion to this circumstance was rather awkward. And the use which was made of it in the debate too, is, I think, little less remarkable. The South-Carolina patriot, as I am well-informed, accused me of purposely omitting the name of Mr. Ross, with a view to render him odious to his constituents, by giving currency to an idea that he was negligent of his duty, in being absent from the Senate at the passing of so important a question. Those who remember the numerous calumnies on this score, circulated by our patriot's associates in political iniquity against this very gentleman, must needs wonder at his assurance. "By what authority" I published the votes under classifications, is a most impertinent, extraordinary and illegal interrogation, which not even the instruments of the Inquisition would have presumed to apply—The view I had in publishing them thus, was most clearly to express my astonishment at Federal gentlemen appearing as advocates for what appeared to me so palpably a Democratic and a ruinous step. This, I trust, was done decently. I am not to set up any judgment as the superior standard of right—nor do I feel disposed to say that these are not wise and honorable men: "but here I am, to speak what I do think," even in the very teeth of proscription. To our author's fourth question I reply that the remarks alluded to, such as they are, are mine, and very much at his service. I feel my vanity flattered by the imputation of these remarks to any other person, and the more especially as I am assured they were attributed to a gentleman not only high in office, but pre-eminently distinguished by literary and classical attainments; against whom, I am very angry to add, vengeance and loss of office was most illiberally vowed therefor, by certain persons. Yes, I confess, my vanity is highly flattered by this imputation, for though I have never aspired to a very high dignity in authorship, tho' I have never like our author, offered libations to the sacred Nine, at those bubbling streams which issue from Aonia or Pieria or Heliconia, though I have never sung the praises of Aliens, nor "planted or corn or hay," yet still I am proud that any hasty production of mine should be mistaken for work of a man of genius or science.

The 5th question to have been propounded to me by these sage undecimi, being of a most extraordinary and unprecedented nature, I refer it to some general remarks which I propose to offer, on these extraordinary proceedings.

It has been the practice in Great-Britain to summons Printers before either House of Parliament, on particular grounds of offence; charges, for instance, of venality and corruption, laid against them as a body. But I doubt very much whether the letter or the spirit of our Constitution will authorize any such proceeding even on the same grounds. The genius of our country required (and indeed stipulated for) a far greater license of the Press than British subjects can claim in theory. But while they enjoy all the practical benefit of the unrestrained freedom of the Press, it seems we are in a fair way to take our leave of every thing but the theory. The wretches who earn their subsistence by emitting their nauseous, lewd and silly slander thro' the Aurora, are as despicable in my sight as they can be in that of any man. But I think there was a method of restraining them, far preferable to these expedients. It is a copious subject, and demands more information and attention than I can bring to it.

J. W. F.

What a difference is discernible between Philosophers old and Philosophers new! A member of one of the Grecian sects, describing the characteristics of a future scholar, makes what is called liberal curiosity a favorable presage of mental worth. Let this sort of curiosity then, continues the ancient writer, be LIBERALLY indulged, for it is not that vulgar and childish curiosity, which incites the idler to go to the games, and to the horse course, and to Corinth for Lais and to Chios for Wine, but it is a curiosity, without which man is an ignorant stranger in the world of science and information—But no, say certain new Philosophers, dissenting, or wavering members of a great political body, let us shut our doors, and bar and bolt out men from our lobby. This curiosity is a dangerous thing. Your studious and thinking men are apt to be curious. We wish to degrade and choak such men. They do not answer our purpose. Anacharsis Clootz, a great Philosopher, denounced men of talents, and wished to introduce a system of general extermination in the schools. Let us imitate Anacharsis Clootz. Let us check curiosity, particularly Federal curiosity. It is too hawk-eyed It discerns our imperfections. It pries into every creek and corner of Democracy. It is a spy upon our camp. We will hoodwink this sharp sighted being. We will send for a blacksmith "with his hammer thus," and he shall nail up our folding doors. We want no modest listeners, no men of memory and remark; we want *no Gentlemen here. No, say the Connecticut phalanx, this is illiberal, vexatious, boyish. Away with such folly. Let us not deny our political cup to the strangers. Yes, say the iris coloured, fluctuating, lukewarm, faint hearted, selfish, pliant party we will, for it will please the Democrats, and we live by pleasing, and voting many ways and and shifting our ground, and acting an agreeable political medley. Sometimes out at sea, and sometimes close along shore. This is prudence, this is moderation. This conciliates all parties. This was the Vicar of Bray's scheme, and the Vicar of Bray was a very excellent politician. Some have thought he was an Indian, cunning, True American Federalist. Let the door be shut to gratify Democrats, and disappointed curiosity read "Knock and it shall not be opened.

* Perhaps these advocates for Exclusion call to mind the example, and act in the spirit, of Dr. Caius in The Merry Wives of Windsor. The Doctor hearing a noise, enquires of Mistress Quickly "who is in de closset"? The simple Dame replies only the young man, and he is very honest. The suspicious Frenchman in a rage rejoins what has de honest man to do there. Dere shall no honest man come into my closet.

Much grumbling is heard out of doors from gentlemen who cannot enter the political straight gate, unless accompanied by a female. This appears to be hard upon old bachelors, ugly fellows and all the ungenteel, unfashionable and ungallant tribe. Because, it sometimes happens that a cold mortal, who is not a lady's man, and never picked up a fan in his life, may wish to hear political news, and go to learn debates, tho' he does not go to an assignation! The situation of this class of the inquisitive is truly deplorable. No pretty woman will be seen in their company, and it has been recently settled that no man can be a politician, without the aid of the sex, and that the co-operation of the Ladies is no less necessary in this case than in many others of a more general and mysterious nature.

QUERY.

How is a curious politician, who happens to have no female friends to grope his way into the house of representatives. Is he at liberty to charter the apple woman at the door, and would it be deemed incorrect to hire a Lady from the stews, who might serve as Portress on this occasion?

The reports of an armistice having been concluded with the Chouans by General Hedouville, are untrue.

Arrived yesterday, brig Nancy, Creighton, 21 days from Cape Francois. Sailed in company with brig Betsy and Peggy; schooner William, M'Bride, for Baltimore, and schr. Maria, for Alexandria.

Capt. C. sailed on the 10th February, at which time there were no United States vessels in the harbour, nor any account of any vessel having been detained by Toussaint. The General Greene, in company with 2 other United States vessels, were cruizing off that port.

On the day of sailing, spoke the United States ship Constitution, captain Talbot, who informed of the taking of the Two Angels. But this intelligence was not received at the cape when capt. C. sailed.

We further learn by this arrival, that a number of Toussaint's forces, who were besieging Jaquemel, had been inveigled into that town by the enemy, by whom they were all cut to pieces—that the siege, however, continued, and that a squadron belonging to Toussaint, who were on their way to the bite of Leogane to co-operate with his land forces, had been fallen in with by the English and all captured.

Mr. Spaight, from the committee appointed for that purpose, reported a bill to alter the times of holding the district court of North Carolina; which was read a first and second time, and committed for Monday next.

Mr. Harper presented a petition of about 50 families, residing in a tract of territory ceded by the state of South Carolina to the United States, stating that they were left unprotected and unacknowledged by any civil authority, and praying to be placed under such government as Congress in their wisdom may see fit. Referred to a select committee to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Macon presented a petition of a number of the inhabitants of North Carolina, on the subject of lands ceded to the United States by that state. Referred to a select committee.

The house took up the unfinished business of yesterday, and the question will the house agree with the committee of the whole in their disagreement to Mr. Livingston's resolutions? being under consideration—

Mr. Marshal went into a very lengthy discussion of the subject—and was followed by Mr. Dana, against the resolutions.

An adjournment was then called for and carried—ayes 50, noes 48.

Legislature of Pennsylvania.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, February 15.

The committee to whom was referred the 11th instant, the petition of a number of the inhabitants of Wheatfield township, Westmoreland county, praying the removal from office of Samuel Elder, a justice of peace in said county, made report, which was read as follows, viz.

That they have had the subject referred to them under consideration, and it appears that from an examination of documents in the office of the Secretary of the commonwealth, the said Samuel Elder was commissioned as a justice of the peace for the township of Wheatfield, on the 21 day of February, 1797; and that he was naturalized in a court of nisi prius held at Sunbury in the county of Northumberland, on the 12th day of April, 1799.

From the above facts, the committee are of opinion that the said Samuel Elder was not qualified to exercise the duties of said office at the time he was commissioned: They therefore offer the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to draft an address to the Governor, requesting that said Samuel Elder may be removed from the office of justice of peace, which he now holds in the county aforesaid.

Ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Blair, seconded by Mr. Snyder,

Resolved, That the committee appointed on the law of the State of Maryland, entitled "An act to incorporate a company for the purpose of cutting and making a canal between the river Delaware and the Chesapeake bay," be instructed to enquire and report on the expediency or inexpediency of repealing the third section of the act of Assembly, entitled "An act to enable the Governor of this commonwealth to appoint commissioners to ascertain the best route for, and mode of effecting a communication between the waters of the Delaware and Chesapeake bay, and appropriating a sum of money for opening the navigation of the river Susquehanna down to the Maryland line;" and also to enquire and report, if at this time there are any measures which ought to be taken on the part of this State, for obtaining the concurrence of the Legislature of the State of Delaware, for the purpose of effecting the aforesaid canal.

TO THE PATRONAGE OF

A liberal and enlightened Community

IS SUBMITTED

THE PROSPECTUS

OF

TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF

THE OBSERVER,

AND

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

News-papers so much more generally diffused throughout America than perhaps any other portion of the globe, may become either engines of mischief or the implements of usefulness—they disseminate good, or scatter poison, among thousands; and although it may be presumptuous in the Editor of that now proposed to expect that its utility will be great, yet he may be admitted to declare, that it shall not willingly be made the means of doing evil

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the morals—to beget, or to confirm, a reverence for the sacred principles of Christianity.

For this purpose it is intended—

To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence;

To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information;

To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement;

To unfold and enforce sound and just views of government:

To aid the great interests of piety and morality.

To present occasionally—

Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy;

Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures;

Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several courts of the United States, &c.

Reviews of foreign and domestic literature;

Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages;

Statistical tables;

Meteorological observations;

Appointments;

Marriages, Births, Deaths.

With these proposals the subscriber diffidently submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and hopes the success of a government created by the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself sincerely interested in promoting such measures and principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of equal size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers.

II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers—To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions.

III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expence of enclosing and directing their papers

IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the other half at the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the first number. The succeeding payments to be half yearly.

V. Advertisements that do not exceed in length the breadth of the column will be 67 cents for the first, and 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

WHEREAS,

AN attachment was lately issued out of the inferior court of common pleas of the county of Essex, in the state of New Jersey, directed to the sheriff of the said county, against the rights, credits, monies and effects, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of John Cleves Symmes at the suit of William Wells, in a plea of trespass on the case to his damage three thousand dollars;—

And whereas, the said sheriff did, at the term of June last past, return to the said court that he had attached the defendant by a certain bond given by Matthias Denman and Samuel Meeker to the said defendant, to the amount of near two thousand dollars, and also by sixty land warrants;—

Now therefore, unless the said John Cleves Symmes shall appear, give special bail, and receive a declaration at the suit of the plaintiff, judgment will be entered against him, and his property herein attached, will be sold agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided.

NO RISK!

To Merchants, Store Keepers and Tradesmen in general, &c.

[You will oblige me by reading this advertisement throughout.]

I RESPECTFULLY invite you either to the City Tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis' Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dunwoody's Tavern, the Franklin's Head, or to the George, to examine a specimen of Rowlett's Tables of Discount or Interest, on every Dollar, from 1 to 2,000; on every ten, from 2000 to 2500; on every fifty from 2500 to 3000; and on every five hundred from 3000 to 5000; from one day to 64 days inclusive, at six per cent. comprising in the whole, upwards of one hundred and thirty two thousand one hundred and fifty calculations of discount; all performed according to the equitable principles of the Banks, and as practised between individuals throughout the United States; being a perfect standard on the subject: with notes, shewing how to use the tables at five, seven and eight per cent. reckoning either 360 or 365 days to the year, and the mode of calculation on cents; to which is added, the principles of computation of the various exchanges between each State respectively, and between these and London and Paris, at different rates of exchange.

The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, and has already received the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate; of a large number of the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously:—a list of the whole is printed and attached to the specimen book.

The preface to the specimen explains, among other matters, the methods to be pursued to render the work perfectly accurate—and gentlemen who will reflect on those methods will agree in the fact. Every one will acknowledge the arduousness of the undertaking.

The expences, independent of any compensation for my trouble, will require a sum between three and four thousand dollars, which is two much to hazard—all must depend therefore upon a general subscription; for unless fifteen hundred subscribers are obtained, it would certainly be imprudent to execute the work.

Subscribers can run no risk, as the book (which will be quarto, from 200 to 225 pages, or more—price two dollars) is not to be paid for until delivered rigorously conformable to my engagements expressed in the conditions affixed to the specimen, which consists of six detached pages of the work.

A table of all the post towns in the United States, and some other useful information (not expressed in the title) will follow the computations of exchanges between this country and England and France, and provided, gentlemen, that a sufficient number of you come forward and subscribe, a further addition shall be made of the coins and money of account of the principal maritime trading places in Russia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Prussia, Poland, Germany, Holland, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, Italy, and in several of the windward and leeward West India Islands, the whole reduced to dollars and cents; and the mode of computing the exchange with those places explained; also, a large sheet table of calculations at compound interest at 6 per cent. to which the notes for 5, 7 and 8 per cent. will apply—the tables used in banks for the determination of the value of gold; and the interest for each month from one to twelve months, which will make the work still more acceptable to persons living in the country as well as in town; and upon the whole, I am confident, that this book will be found as generally useful and convenient as any matter of fact-performance that ever entered a counting house or store.

It is not sufficient that an individual (considering himself but one) shall conclude, instead of subscribing, to purchase the book when published, as some of the members of the House of Representatives of the United States have done; for, however much I am obliged to these, the the loss of many ONES' subscriptions may lose me the race, and the book may never be published. I repeat, that nothing is to be paid in advance,

And am, very respectfully,
Gentlemen,
Your humble servant,
JOHN ROWLETT,
Accomptant Bank North America.

Postscript.—Gentlemen who have business at either of the Banks, or at the Philadelphia Library, will have an opportunity of subscribing there, as well as at the Taverns, &c. before mentioned.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

ADDRESS

To Parents, Tutors and Guardians of Youth, by S. SOLOMON, M. D. F. R. H. S.

Every person, young and old, should purchase this book, there being scarcely an individual who is not interested in some part of it—In particular it is recommended to young men and boys; as an early attention to the latter may serve to guide them against a fatal rock on which thousands have split, and be the means of preserving their bodies from disease, and also their souls, their minds, and all their faculties from destruction.

This truly interesting work has been the labour of many years experience and observation on the calamitous consequences of a secret and destructive vice, to obtain a remedy against which, the Doctor has devoted a principal part of his life. No proprietors of Boarding Schools or Academies should be without it—(Price one Dollar.)

For Nervous Disorders, Female Complaints, Gout in the Stomach, Melancholy, Seminal Weakness, loss of Appetite, Bilious Disorders, Inward Weaknesses, Indigestion, Obstinate Gleets, Juvenile Indiscretions and Premature Old Age, and every other symptom of extreme debility, which are the consequences of a Dissipated Life—excess of Pleasure or Grief—Heat or change of Climate—Immoderate use of Tea, Spirituous Liquors, or any Intemperance—Bad Lyings-in—Diseases incident to Young Girls and Women at a certain period of life—

The Cordial Restorative Balsam

Is recommended as a Medicine of specific and unparalleled virtues for the immediate relief and speedy and permanent cure of the above disorders, having stood a trial of many successful years, during which period many thousands of both sexes have been restored from the brink of the grave.

This Balsam is particularly adapted to weak female constitutions, as well as to phlegmatic habits in general; it acts powerfully as a nervine, not only to the weak stomach, but to the whole nervous system! corrects a vitiated appetite and digestion in the first passages, and assists wonderfully in recovering the tone of the urinary and genital organs:—Hence its efficacy in the most obstinate seminal gleets in men, and corresponding weaknesses in women; and hence it will contribute more safely, surely and honourably towards conjugal happiness, than any of those irritating, diabolical compositions, which are so shamefully administered to the unwary.

It is earnestly recommended to those ladies, who from repeated and difficult labours are afflicted with weaknesses and infirmities; in which cases it is highly useful, strengthening at the same time the stomach, the back, the weakened organs, and the whole constitution.

Those, who in advanced life, feel the consequences of youthful excess, or unfortunate youth, who have brought on themselves a numerous train of evils, will by the use of this find themselves restored to health and strength, and all the melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

For whether the system has received a shock, and is debilitated from imprudence or inattention in the earliest part of life, or is sinking under the advance of years, a few doses of this medicine will afford immediate assurance of returning health and strength, by giving tone to the muscular system, and organs of digestion, and by renovating the whole constitution.

To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility: and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system; but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this Restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this Restorative.

Old coughs soon relieved and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood and emaciated limbs, will ere long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthful.

It will no doubt be acceptable to the reader, to see accounts of some of the remarkable cases and cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine, in the disorders for which it was invented; he has therefore selected a few of such cases as have come within his own immediate knowledge, which are published and may be had (gratis) at any of the places where the medicine is sold.
